At the Office of the Secretary, Department of Interior, Washington, D. C. the personnel file of PAUL SCHUSTER TAYLOR reflects that he was born June 9, 1895 at Sioux City, Iowa. He received an excepted appointment by the Secretary of Interior to the position of Consulting Economist, Division of Power, Office of the Secretary, Department of Interior with headquarters at Berkeley, California and a salary of $25.00 per diem when actually employed for a period not to exceed 180 days. He entered duty in that position on April 28, 1943. The file indicates he worked part time through June 30, 1944. A partial description of his duties in the position of Consulting Economist read as follows: "Dr. TAYLOR will represent the Division of Power in committee work on the Central Valley Projects Studies. He will confer with members of the staff, with representatives of the Bureau of Reclamation and with other appointees from California and other federal agencies...." The oath of office,
